

OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP
CHURCH
JUNE 9, 2024

GENESIS 3:9-15
ADAM AND EVE EAT THE FRUIT OF THE FORBIDDEN TREE

Pastor's Column - June 9, 2024

In this weekend's Readings from Sacred Scripture we hear about the sad effects of sin in the world. In the First Reading from the Book of Genesis, we see that sin separates humanity from God. Adam and Eve freely chose to ignore what God had asked them to do and they had to face the consequences for their actions which was death and separation from God. The Good News is that Jesus Christ, by His death on the cross, has reestablished our relationship with God and has opened for us the gates of heaven. Jesus shows us that we do not have to fall into the trap of sin, but can actually do God's will, Just as Mary did. As we begin this period of Ordinary time in the Church year, let us recommit ourselves to acting on God's will in our lives and daily listening to His voice.

Last week I wired $50,278 from St. Stephen-St. Patrick Parish and $9,255 from Our Lady of Perpetual Help Mission to the Victim's Trust Fund for the Diocese of Syracuse. The Diocese is hopeful to have the case settled in the near future so that we can continue the healing process from this terrible chapter in the history of our diocese. Please keep the victims of abuse in your prayers.

This weekend we will honor our graduates at our 8:30 Mass. This promises to be a special Liturgy and it is important for us to celebrate the achievements of our young people as they begin the next chapter of their lives. Let us keep our Young Graduates in prayer as they celebrate this milestone in their lives.

HAVE A GREAT WEEK!

Daily Message from Pope Francis "Just as we know how to distinguish one language from another, we can also distinguish the voice of God from the voice of the evil one. The voice of God never forces us: God proposes himself, He does not impose himself. Instead, the evil voice seduces, assails, forces: it arouses dazzling illusions, emotions that are tempting but transient. At first it flatters, it makes us believe that we are all-powerful, but then it leaves us empty inside and accuses us: "You are worth nothing". The voice of God, instead, corrects us, with great patience, but always encourages us, consoles us: it always nourishes hope." ~Pope Francis

Come in, browse, enjoy a cup of coffee, take a chance on a raffle, visit the free room*, and say "hello" to Joanne and everyone there.
