Pastoral Administrator's Column

Gifted, Chosen and Sent Forth By God

In today's Gospel reading, the disciples are sent to outsiders, thus expanding its missionary range and moving into Gentile lands.

Helmut Koester has suggested that Mark created the literary genre of the gospel as an instruction in discipleship, to sustain the life of the church and to prepare it for the inevitable experience of suffering. If that be the case, then today's pericope is an explicit example of Jesus' apostolic counsel.

A sense of eschatological urgency pervade the entire text. The instruction to take nothing - not food or luggage, money or change of clothing is more than an exhortation to simplicity and asceticism. With the belief that the Messianic era was upon them, such provision for a long campaign were deemed useless and unnecessary. In addition to the eschatological atmosphere of the episode, there is a message about trusting in divine providence of the Blessed Trinity.

For Amos and the apostles, as they are called and sent, they must know who they are and who it is who called them. The true prophet, Amos, knew the Lord sent him. The apostles were sent by Jesus. They came from varied walks of life. God calls everyone no matter who they are. Will you share Jesus' message, the Good News of salvation, and go where he sends you and welcome others as you would Christ himself?

May the Lord help us to accept God's call and mission for each one of us, for God's glory and our salvation.

Have a blessed summer and an Amazing Sunday!

Rev. Thomas Macauley

Creation Care Tips:

He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts." -Mark 6:8.

In today's Gospel, Jesus commands his disciples to live simply as they spread the Good News. Just like the first disciples, we are asked to live simply too. This week, challenge yourself to live with fewer disposable items, cut down on your waste, and choose reusable items. Instead of using plastic wrap, use beeswax wraps or other reusable substitutes. Use cloth grocery bags and mesh vegetable bags instead of the single use plastic ones at the store. If you haven't already, commit to using a reusable coffee cup and metal straws.

Council of Churches - We are in need of a person from our parish to represent our church. The Council of Churches is made up of clergy and lay people from the various churches in the area. They meet every other month and the individual can attend in person or on zoom. The purpose is to share God's love in our community. The main role of our representative will be to help plan common events, share information about our parish and to bring back information to our church. Please contact Peg Orzel at 607-372-7036 for more info or to volunteer. It is very important we unite with other denominations in our area.

Little Free Library -Did you notice the little church building

near the bottle and can bin in front of the Whitney Point church? It is a Little Free Library donated by the Doug Pogorzelski Family. What is a Little Free Library? It's a "take book, return a book" gathering place where neighbors (adult and children) share their favorite literature and stories. In its most basic form, a Little Free Library is a box full of books where anyone may stop by and pick up a book (or two) and bring back another book to share. You can, too! It is a program to encourage literacy throughout our country. Perhaps stop on your way into or out of church each week.

Happy Summer Time Reading!

Mission Statement for The Catholic Community of St. Stephen - St. Patrick

We are a Roman Catholic Community of faith, welcoming the strength found in diversity. We are committed to using our time, talent, and treasure in proclaiming the Kingdom of God through prayer, fellowship, and service.

We experience our unity at the Eucharistic Table of the Lord, and our direction from the Word of God.

If you know of parishioners that have not been able to come to Mass because they are ill, hospitalized or homebound, please let the Parish Office know so our Hospitality Groups can provide contact with them through visits and cards, or any spiritual needs such as communion, and perhaps they would like to receive a copy of our bulletin.

If you know someone that is ill, facing surgery, or some other kind of difficulty, and needs our prayers, please contact Pat Canfield at pattycafe@yahoo.com. She will lead the Prayer Chain we have at The CC of St. Stephen-St. Patrick Church. Supporting each other with the Power of Prayer is the best medicine. ### Whole Community Catechesis

Readings and Questions for Discussion

Reading 1- Amos 7:12-15

The prophet Amos is sent from Bethel.

Reading 2 - Ephesians 1:3-14

(shorter form Ephesians 1:3-10)

Paul teaches that we were chosen for Christ before the creation of the world.

Gospel - Mark 6:7-13

Jesus instructs his disciples and sends them to preach repentance.

Adults: What part of the Good News of Jesus Christ can I share this week?

Children: Which of Jesus' stories can I tell this week?

A Family Perspective

Jesus sent out His apostles without many "things" because THINGS distract. We collect, argue about and protect our "things." Garage sales only transfer "things." We even ignore each other because we have "things" to do. What "things" are separating you from your family?

The Marathon setting is disposing of two trash cans and their receptacle.-

If you are interested, a photo and details are on the table in the Vestibule at Marathon. Must be gone by July 15. See picture of it on our bulletin boards.

Mass Intention Offerings

The minimum offering for all Mass intentions (both living and deceased) is $15 per Mass. If paying by check, please make payable to: CC of St. Stephen-St. Patrick Church. Call or stop in the parish office. You may give generously.

Vocation View: "He began to send them out two by two." Just as Jesus was sending out His disciples in pairs, perhaps you too are being called to discipleship for this shared mission as a priest or religious brother or sister. Reach out to the Vocation Office via email: vocations@syrdio.org and follow us on Instagram @vocations Syracuse or call Fr. Jason Hage at (315) 470-1468.

Please bring a dish to pass, a lawn chair and an outdoor game if you wish. Our parish's Hospitality Committee will be providing the meat, beverages and place settings.

Everyone join us for a fun-filled day!

Church Picnic

WEEKLY JUSTICE CHALLENGE: July 14th is the feast day of Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha, the patron of the environment and ecology. She was from an Algonquin tribe that had been hit with a small pox epidemic which took the lives of her family. As a teenager, she was introduced to Scripture by missionaries and she was baptized. She led a very prayerful life devoted to the Eucharist and to serving others. Some in her tribe ridiculed her and she endured great suffering for her faith. Yet she never wavered in her beliefs. Your justice challenge this week is to take a step out in faith like Kateri, talk with a friend or someone in your family about your faith. Share what is important to you about it and then encourage those you talk with to do the same. You may be laughed at or ridiculed, or even surprised by a warm reception. Whatever the response, thank God in prayer for the opportunities you have to bring the good news to others and continue to be a living witness of your faith.
